

Wine Spectator

91

ACRE

Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley 2016

This is nicely focused, with a core of red and black currant fruit that shows a lightly racy edge despite its muscle, with hints of mesquite and sassafras peeking through. A late hint of iron checks in on the finish, which already shows a hint of maturity. Drink now through 2025. 518 cases made. (Feb 28, 2021)

WineSpectator.com